I remember David when they lived in Georgetown. They lived across the road from my grandparents the Racaniello's. What a wonderful person he was.

As a Consultant, David came to work with Verizon Wireless around 2009-2011. In the great scheme of things, it wasn't a long time. But in that short 18-20 months, he became part of our family. He was by my side, every day (even though he was in Chicago and I was in Seattle), and quickly turned into my most trusted partner, both in the work we were doing and the friendship that bloomed. Everyone on the project team knew him, respected him, and - eventually - loved him. We were lucky enough to have to meet face-to-face often, and I cherish the time we spent together. I know everyone he touched at Verizon is saddened by his passing, happy he is out of pain, and looking forward to when we will see him again. Thank you for your spirit, David. You touched all of our lives.

I was trying to get in touch with David when I found he had passed away. Back in 84-85 we were best friends going to rival high schools but working together on the weekends. We almost went to Washington & Lee together but I decided on Gettysburg. He was my best man at my wedding (he got a kick out of that). Life took us in different directions but I'll always be grateful for the friendship we shared and all the great memories. RIP Dave.Scott H.
