We all handle sickness, death and grief in are own way. I knew Jack for 31 years, after the lose of my own father 12 years ago, he became my "Dad". I knew he was always there for me, if it was 6 in the morning or 11pm night he would always answer and guide me through my problems. So, now I will have to look up for guidance! So happy you were a part of my life. Love and miss you. Lisa

Jack was one of the best at caring about others, helping others when they were down, showing and telling stories to lift a friend to a higher place; whether it be silly, real from his past, present, and he even went as far as foreseeing the future. He filled our hearts and cared for Mary Ann, Jennie Lynn and Tracey and their families at every turn. Most of all he was man of Faith, strong Faith, and we can all be assured he was welcomed to Heaven with open arms and guided by a flock of angels. Over the years, and there were a few, Jack was there for me when I was down and had some things that needed to be discussed. I lost my dad long time ago, no worries I could always feel safe and at "home" with Jack. Now he is home and safe. Love to all the girls and Steve, Don and Hunter, with much sadness we say goodbye to a good man Michaele Flick and Rusty Williams

I knew jack since he was a very small child. His sister Kay and my late wife Puff would play "dress ups" with him as the "baby". In later years they teased him and per his good nature he took it in stride. Ha Jack say hello to all and in a wink we will join the reunion. Ralph Scott

Pop Pop you are genuinely one of the kindest people I've known. You showed so much love to everyone you knew especially my family and I. Your presence is already missed so much and will continue to be. I'm glad I still have some Oolong tea left from the box you gave me so I can think of you whenever I drink some! I hope every day at 4 o'clock you're up there enjoying your wine time. Love you today! Xoxo, Katie

Jack was quite possibly the most incredible human being I've ever known. Truly a man of God, he was a good friend. Jack was always the first to help anyone and very in tune to the needs of others. My thoughts are with Mary Ann and his family. Thank you for sharing him so generously with the rest of us. He will be missed. Rest well, my friend. You have been a good and faithful servant.
