Kay Hinchman lit a candle in honor of Joseph .

I am Joey's aunt and for a few months he was living with me and my family. I have two sons and he hung out with his cousin Rob, who was close to his age. They were always into mischief. One day they decided it would be fun to jump off the garage roof outside Rob's window with umbrellas, a substitute for a parachute. Thank God no one was hurt, but they were grounded for a while. This was one of several groundings.

My prayers and love go to my sister, Kim. Stay strong, and be well. Remember, those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Knowing this can help carry you everywhere. L.
