So many wonderful memories of this beautiful lady. She sometimes seemed like a second mom to me while growing up. I will always admire how hard she worked and how much she loved all her family. One of my greatest memories is of the night she met Tom Jones. She came home so excited because I think she caught his handkerchief when he through it into the crowd at his concert. In later years, she was always such a great friend to both my mom Phyllis and dad Buck. We will all miss her so.
