Laurel posted:

We live in her Fairfax neighborhood. Over the years we've watched her forge ahead clearing and planting her yard, building planters and terracing her yard. We always stopped to chat with her and sadly watched her home fall into disrepair as her health failed. She was brave and realistic about her condition. I think it's a sad thing to see her place cleared. She loved that home for so long. I hope the new owner does it justice. She deserves that.
