Mom mom.. There so many memories.. From softball to late night to talks to fighting not seeing eye to eye but at the end of the day we always said we loved one another... And I am grateful for all the time I have had.. I am extremely grateful for all the time you spent with my kids.. Cameron loves you dearly and always will. I remember you telling me that you think landen didn't like you.. But these past few months you and him got really close and made memories he will remember forever... He loves his grandma.. He he only one that called you that... He does love you.. And baby girl you taught he "so big" just like you did with all the baby's.. She might not remember you but I have stories and I'm sure she knew whiny was when she was with you and she always gave u love.. We all love you and will miss you so much.. Until we meet again give pop pop hugs and kisses.. And hugs and kisses to u
