Neva R. McClary

MAR 27, 1933 - AUG 22, 2018

Neva R. McClary, age 85, of Bridgeville, DE, passed away on Wednesday, August 22, 2018 at her home. She was born in Bridgeville, DE, on March 27, 1933, daughter of the late James M. and Lillie Lee (Smith) Raughley.

Mrs. McClary was born and raised in Bridgeville. She graduated from Goldey-Beacom College, after which she began a career as a deputy sheriff in Sussex County and owned and ran the Raughley House Bed and Breakfast in Bridgeville. Mrs. McClary loved being outdoors, where she enjoyed working in her yard and tending her various gardens. She was the consummate hostess, entertaining during the tea parties she held for dear friends. Mrs. McClary was an avid Baltimore Orioles fan, always supporting the Orange and Black. She also enjoyed oil painting and collecting antiques. Mrs. McClary enjoyed tracing her family's history and gathering information for her family tree. She was also the club leader of the Bridgeville Wildcats 4H club for more than 15 years, as well as a faithful member of Union United Methodist Church in Bridgeville and Saint Johnstown Church in Greenwood. More than anything, however, she was a devoted mother, putting her beloved son's needs above all. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Mrs. McClary is survived by her son, Lloydlee Heite of Bridgeville, DE.

Lloydlee, Our family is saddened by the passing of Ms. Neva. But we rejoice that our last memories were Sunday, August 12 at St. Johnstown. She was so happy, surrounded by church friends, good food and fellowship. And she looked so lovely in her hat. I will miss her weekly phone calls to discuss the Orioles, her favorite players and scores. She made me laugh, as she told me which players needed to be traded and that we need all new pitchers. We would then discuss church news and her flowers! Our family will always have fond memories of Ms. Neva. Donnie & Rita Lofland
