Debbie's been a wonderful friend since 1963. We had so many great, funny experiences through the years. I still remember when we took the train (her dad was the Wilmington Station Master) to the NY World's Fair. She was also the person who first got me to ride the Wild Mouse Roller Coaster in Wildwood, NJ. Thought we were going to fly off into the ocean. Best times of all were those when we would get together, with many other great friends & significant others, in Stone Harbor, NJ, from 1998 - 2008. Rest in peace, Debbie. Hope to see you again one Day. Love, Liz Taylor-Cassanelli
