Ray and I were co-workers at a David Taylor Navy Research and Development Center for over 30 years. Ray was a very smart engineer and very dedicated to his work. In the latter years of our careers, we worked together on a special assignment at Navy Headquarters in the Pentagon where we helped to shape and manage the Navy-wide Science and Technology programs for logistics. I enjoyed working with Ray and I am proud of what we accomplished for the Navy. Although Ray is no longer with us, his family can be proud that his life's work for the US Navy is and will be keeping the Navy at the forefront of technology. Perry L Price Bowie, Maryland

My best friend of more than 45 years who was like a brother to me. Ray and I were there for each other many times when it was a life or death situation. We could communicate with each other for hours at a time. Ray was one of the most giving persons that I ever met. He was very active in his community and helped hundreds of people in AA. Without mentioning names, he would tell me what he did to help the people in AA. I was a very strong supporter of Ray's involvement in AA and attended a few of the meetings. The happiest time of Ray's life is when he met Beth and his many trips with her. I will have many crying sessions remembering Ray and hope that he will be one the first people that I meet in heaven.

Ray was a good man in the truest sense, with his faith in God, his integrity, and his intellect. Ray's friendship with Bill was more than 36 years in length of time, more than 36 years in width of scope, and more than 36 years in depth of rigorous honesty, enabling Ray to serve countless others in a myriad of ways, rooted in helping us to find and develop a relationship with a Power greater than ourselves upon Whom is our real reliance. With love and gratitude from Maria and Tom

About two years ago, via a short letter in the mail, my family was fortunate enough to meet Ray and Beth. Ray helped make a BIG dream come true for us by allowing us to purchase his home. Throughout the transaction, Ray was always honest, fair and thoughtful. Ray and Beth even allowed us to store our belongings in their house before they moved out. We can't say enough wonderful things about Ray and he will always be in our thoughts and prayers!
