Philip Charles Wescott

OCT 28, 1943 - FEB 9, 2020

Phil Wescott of Lewes, Delaware died on February 9th at his home, surrounded by his family. His family and his career were both important to Phil. So were his aesthetic interests and his spiritual growth and development. During his lifetime he pursued several different careers and interests and was known as a true people person.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on October 28, 1943, he was the fourth child of Louis Sebastian Wescott and Genevieve Flynn Wescott, both of Olean, New York.

Phil was a graduate of Kiskiminetas Springs School ["Kiski"] in Saltsburg, Pennsylvania, as well as of Wabash College, Indiana University [Bloomington], and the University of Delaware.

He married Carol Hocker of Evansville, Indiana in 1966 and they were subsequently blessed with three children.

After military service during the Vietnam War, he pursued a career in marketing and communications, primarily in the healthcare industry. He was an executive at Bristol-Myers Squibb Company and at the Christiana Care Health System, and also organized and operated several successful small businesses.

Phil was a gifted communicator, in diverse formats. He worked for leading Advertising and Public Relations agencies in New York and Chicago, including Saatchi & Saatchi and Burson-Marsteller. He enjoyed art, both as a practitioner and as an observer and collector. He also read and wrote non-fiction and poetry.

After helping establish and then branding Delaware's Christiana Care Health System, Phil joined the communication faculty at the University of Delaware until his retirement in 2008. Throughout his career, he enjoyed mentoring young talent, and he was repeatedly recognized as an Outstanding Advisor to UD students and campus organizations. He retired from the UD faculty and subsequently enrolled in his third Master's degree program there.

He was also active as a Board member of numerous professional and community organizations, including the Public Relations Society of America, the Delaware Community Foundation, the American Marketing Association, the Girl Scouts of American Chesapeake Bay Council, the Rehoboth Art League, and others; he also helped organize and open the Charter School of Wilmington, Delaware's first Charter school.

After Carol's death in November 2006, Phil met Judith Wells Brunner of Wilmington, and they enjoyed many happy years together, traveling and spending time at Rehoboth Beach. He often said that his life was greatly enriched by Judy, who also encouraged his creative pursuits. They lived at the Bay Crossing community in Lewes, Delaware in recent years.

In addition to Judy and his three children, Phil is survived by nine grandchildren. His children are Kimberly Gee [husband Bryan] of La Grange, IL, Kristen Schneider [husband Bruno] of Paris, France, and Mike [wife Andrea] of San Carlos, CA. Grandchildren include Abby, Maddie, and Caroline Gee, Scarlett, Harlowe, and Brooke Schneider, and Josie, Charlie, and Sean Wescott. His brother, Bill Wescott, of Richmond, VA also survives, as do seven nieces and nephews. Judy's sisters, their husbands, her brother and his wife and all their children and grandchildren have loved Phil for many years.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:30 AM on Tuesday, February 18th, 2020 at St. Joseph on the Brandywine Roman Catholic Church, 10 Old Church Road, Greenville, Delaware, where friends may visit beginning at 9:30 AM. Burial will immediately follow at St. Joseph on the Brandywine Cemetery. Arrangements are being handled by Parsell Funeral Homes & Crematorium, Atkins-Lodge Chapel, Lewes, Delaware.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Phil's memory to the Tunnell Cancer Center in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware or to the Heart and Vascular Center at Christiana Care Health System in Newark, Delaware, in memory of Carol Wescott.

Please sign the online guestbook located on the tribute page.

I met Phil in the late 1970s when he was at Mead Johnson with an office next to Peter Miller and Wendy (the Runner) Thomas. Mike, who was known as Chip back then, was just a little kid. Phil and Carol and I remained friends even after we all relocated from the Midwest to the East Coast. Though I haven't seen Phil in 20 years, he will always be remembered as a real joy to everyone he met. He was kind, thoughtful and smart. He laughed easily and often. It was always great to spend time with him. Sorry to learn, belatedly, of your loss. With Sympathy, Alice (Harvey) Herman, Scarsdale, NY

Kim, Kristen and Mike, I am so sorry to hear of Phil's passing. I had the good fortune of knowing your Mom and Dad. I first met your Dad when he was at Mead Johnson. He was a regular customer at my father's service station next to MeadJo. He later mentored me at the Mead Johnson advertising club and took me to Wabash College for my first visit. We stayed in touch over the next 40 plus years. He was always generous of his time and welcomed my calls.. i remember how your Mom and Dad welcomed me into their home after recently moving to suburban Philadelphia. I hope that you will comfort in knowing that your Father will always be remembered by the many people he touched personally and professionally through his career. Warmest regards, Bill Kovach Naperville, IL.

I was lucky enough to become a friend of Phil's in 1999, when he was among the very first to befriend me as a newcomer to Delaware. We worked together on several projects, and later, became colleagues when he joined the faculty at the University of Delaware. Just last Fall, we agreed to co-teach a course at the Osher Academy of Lifelong Learning in Lewes; regrettably, Phil was forced by health issues to bow out before our class began. Phil was always a warm and welcoming friend, always eager to find an uplifting angle to the crisis of the day. He was deeply interested in the role of journalists and news media in society, a strong point of connection for us after my previous career in Washington. I can hear his rich, strong voice and see his instant, broad smile. I'm sorry we weren't able to teach together again. To all his family, and to Judy, I wish strength... and, eventually, peace... through this transition. Most sincerely, Ralph Begleiter
