Carol Wayne

APR 4, 1950 - FEB 25, 2020

Carol Wayne, while surrounded by family and best friends, walked off the LIFE/BLUES stage after telling all in the room she was "heading out". She left the stage after calling out to her Mother, clearly reuniting with her in the audience. Carol's last blues song ended on February 25, 2020, at exactly 2:50pm.

Carol began her life journey on April 4th, 1950, daughter of the late Albert and Corinne Cobb and the eldest of four children. Her life began in Media Pennsylvania, onward to Maryland, and the majority of her adult life on the Big Island of Hawaii, before coming back to Delaware to be with her ailing Mother.

Carol was a real estate agent, served on the board of WCR and was involved in other local community organizations. Her history in Hawaii focused on the loves of her life: her six children, Merri, Ruby, Honey, Eddy, Willy and Lucy who ultimately shaped the woman we all loved and cherished. Carol's compassion, grace, fun sense of humor, love of music, quick wit and laugh will be missed more than we all can fathom. Her relationship with her sister Bisha was a depth of love that her friends and family honored and will carry with forever. Her brother Stephen, has been her rock and her anchor, never wavering from her side. The friendships that Carol created and the love that she gave all was beyond what most people have ever experienced. We all wanted to be near Carol as she was always the one who was having the most fun. As her "Bean" says, "If you go to Lewes beach at sunset when the sun is near the horizon, listen closely; you'll hear Carol Wayne singing a joyful Blues tune, because the Blues was alright with Carol".

In addition to her parents, Carol was preceded in death by her brother, James A. Cobb. She is survived by her six children: Merri Joy Moylan and her husband James of Post Falls, ID, Ruby Wood and her husband Nick of Oakland, CA, Honey Wayne of Tiburon, CA, Adam "Eddie" Wayne and his wife Selene of Pohoia, HI, and Lucy Wayne of Pasadena, CA; her ten grandchildren: Peter, Gemma, Joy, Blase, Julia, Max, Rose, Kaili, Cody, and Charlotte; her two siblings: Patricia "Bisha" Cobb Richardson and her husband Gene "Bean" of Baltimore, MD and Sending our deepest sympathies to Bisha, Joy and Carol's family and friends. My husband and I knew nothing about Delaware and met Carol in October 2015 through Vickie York and she helped us find a home near Bethany Beach. We closed on the house on April 13, 2016 and 3 days later, we were in total shock when we invited her to thank her for her help and found out she was diagnosed with the serious illness. Since then, we always made a point to meet up when she felt well and in the end, the house simply served as the excuse for us to be blessed with her love and friendship. In February 2019, we hosted her in New York and had a great time at "Beautiful", the Broadway musical on Carole King. Her courage, strength and optimism in the face of ongoing treatment and discomfort are truly inspirational. We will miss her beautiful smile and warm heart and the only comfort that helps ease the pain of her loss is that she is relieved of pain and suffering. May Carol's soul rest in eternal peace.

I will dearly miss you sweet kindred spirit! Your laugh, your sideways glances to me when you knew we were thinking the same thing but had to keep me in line from saying it! LOL You were my mentor, my sista, and a good friend. Till we meet again.
