Romaine was a wonderful aunt and we had a lot of fun times together. I grew to have a close bond with her. I remember the time Barry and I visited with her. Adrienne and I searched her property unable to find her. After about an hour we were ready to call 911 and then we found her sleeping in the back seat of her car. Her eyeglasses were laying at the back window. She woke up and asked "are you looking for me?" She just smiled and giggled. Barry and I will always remember the couple of years we helped take care of her and her husband, Harry. Romaine and I would spend time in her rocking chairs talking about the old times. I have so many fond memories of Aunt Romaine. We loved her and will miss her. Love, Vonnie and Barry Riddle
