Ronald Hulliger posted:

So sorry for the loss of Burton. One of his brothers, Thomas B., was my stepfather. I guess that makes Burton an Uncle to me. I remember Uncle Burton ever since I was 9 years old. He was always happy and smiling and very nice to me. My stepfather loved him very much and enjoyed being in his presence. Uncle Burton would attend the July 4th cookout at the Bauguess's every year. Sherry, my wife, and I would always try to spend time with him to get caught up on things. Like most folks, we promised each other we would stop by once in a while following the cookout but never did. Rest in peace Uncle Burton. I know you are having a joyous reunion with the rest of your family. Will see you again in the next dimension Laus Deo! Ron and Sherry Hulliger
