Carolyn and I were classmates at Frederick Douglas elementary school back in the 60s we remain friends throughout those years! I remember going to the shack in Ellendale and we always like to cut up. We also work together at the visiting nurses together! But we later became Christians who love the Lord!She will be greatly missed! I will miss those phone calls of "hey honey how are you doing?"Sleep on and take your rest

We've been friends since the early 70's. We shared lots of laughs and fun times. We had each other's back. I still can't believe you've gone on to Glory way, way too some! Oh how I miss you and pray you find comfort and rest on the arms of Jesus Christ! May we meet again in that great getting up morning! Love & hugs, Zel
