David W. Cameron

DEC 2, 1967 - JAN 4, 2021

David W. Cameron, age 53 of Bridgeville, DE, passed away on Monday, January 4, 2021 at his residence. He was born in Toronto Ontario Canada, on December 2, 1967, son of the late William Duncan Cameron and Helen Elizabeth Marshall Cameron who survives him. He was also preceded in death by a brother Robert R. Cameron.

Mr. Cameron worked as a cabinet maker his entire life for many different companies throughout Sussex County. He also previously owned and operated Sussex Craft Mall in Bridgeville, DE. He enjoyed putting on pig roasts for his friends, taking a day out to fish with his son and spending time with all his family members, especially the children.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his son David W. Cameron, Jr. of Bridgeville; stepdaughters, Kristy Martin O'Neil (Alan) and Shannon Martin, both of Laurel, DE; his former spouse, Brenda Williams of Laurel, DE; Sister and brother-in-law Catherine and George Schweigart of Woodhull, NY; his granddaughter Logan A. Cameron of Bridgeville; step grandchildren, Rylee Scott and Raegan O'Neal and Braydon MacDonald and Jaxon Webb; nephews, George Schweigart Jr. and Robert Cameron, Jr., and nieces Rebekah and Bethany Schweigart, Kyrstin and Leah Cameron and children.

Due to the Covid 19 Pandemic all services will be privately held with burial at St. Luke's Episcopal Church Yard, Seaford, DE.

Memorials are suggested to any Charity of Choice.

RIP, I am so sorry to hear this. I was a patron of the craft mall many years ago and got to know both Him and his mother. Very sad and so young ! My condolences go out to the family and friends and may your memories bring you comfort. May God Bless you all with his love and comfort as well.
