In loving memory of Daniel Howard Tischler, Although I haven't seen or spoken to you in quite a few years, I will always remember your smile, laugh and our childhood through adulthood times together. As cousins we could sporadically see each other but pick right up where we left off...laughing and enjoying our CRAZY family. Love you, Danny. May your heart and soul find peace and comfort. Love from your cousin, Gina

When All That's Left Is Love by Rabbi Allen S. Maller
When I die if you need to weep
Cry for someone
Walking the street beside you.
You can love me most by letting Hands touch hands, and
Souls touch souls.
You can love me most by
Sharing your Simchas and Multiplying your Mitzvot.
You can love me most by
Letting me live in your eyes
And not on your mind.
And when you say Kaddish for me
Remember what our Torah teaches,
Love doesn't die: people do.
So when all that's left of me is love
Give me away.
