I was lucky to work with Paul at Creativity Inc. for about 5 years. We traveled together extensively throughout Asia and Paul was a unique combination of a jokester and a gentleman. He was a great product developer and made all those long trips away from home a lot more fun. We kept in touch and I was so happy to see him meet his soulmate, Rob, get married, build his dream house and retire. I am so saddened that he does not get to enjoy everything he worked so hard for. Rest In Peace, my friend, you will be forever missed.

Paul was the best brother a sister could have. Being just 11 1/2 months apart we always joked about being the same age for 2 weeks. I always had someone to play with growing up. He was a very unique person, very intelligent, witty and loving. I miss him very much but I know he is in a better place now. I love you Paul. Your Sister Pam

I worked with Paul at AC Moore. His wit, charm, devious sense of humor and the devilish twinkle in his eyes were what made it easy to befriend him. He lightened some of the most grueling days at work. He was weird in a wonderful way...most of my friends are. He found his 2 cats through a rescue I recommended and was a good dad to those fur kids. I was happy to stay in touch via social media when he left. I loved seeing how happy he was with his husband Rob and the details and excitement of their new home. My heart is broken for Rob and all whose lives Paul touched. He was definitely someone worth knowing. In memory of Paul, please be safe in these times because as we all have learned, it can happen to anyone. Love and happy memories to all. Karen O'Leary
