Richard D. Pagnotta

SEP 14, 1947 - APR 18, 2021

On Sunday, April 18, 2021, Richard “Richie” Pagnotta passed away suddenly at his home in Rehoboth Beach. Richie was born September 14, 1947 to Rocco and Rose (Rainero) Pagnotta in New York City, where he grew up and later attended Hofstra University.

During his 20’s, Richie relocated to Washington, D.C., where he worked as a Human Resources Manager and met his life partner and husband of 42 years, William “Bill” Snow. Richie and Bill enjoyed spending weekends and holidays in Rehoboth and after retiring in 2009 moved permanently into their Rehoboth home.

In addition to his husband, Richie is survived by his sister Lin Pagnotta of Rehoboth Beach, several cousins and a myriad of loving friends, all of whom will miss him greatly.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Richie’s name may be made to Camp Rehoboth, 37 Baltimore Avenue Rehoboth Beach, DE 19971

Interment will be private. Any planned celebration of life will be announced by the family at a later date.

Please sign the online guestbook located on the tribute page.

Bill, I am so very sorry to hear of Richie's passing. I will never forget meeting the two of you at a sidewalk bar in Puerto Vallarta, where we chatted about where in the US we were from, found out we were both living in Delaware . . . then down to Rehoboth . . . Canal Corkran, and finally that we just lived down the street from each other. It was so good to get to know you both. If there is anything I can do to help in the coming months, please let me know. Roger Brown lit a candle in honor of Richard.

I am deeply saddened for the loss of my mentor and friend Richie. He was an amazing colleague and teacher. He jump started my career and drove me to where I am today because of his tough love and martinis. My heart goes out to Bill. Godspeed Richard and I look forward to connecting in the afterlife with my dear friend.
