Alan was a very kind person. He spent many nights at my house. He and my son Chuck were best of friends. Alan was my son's most loyal friend. It breaks my heart he is gone. He is only gone in a physical sense. He is free now and becomes a guardian angel of his daughter Josie, Amber and all his loving family. I will never forget you Alan. You were like a son and brother to Chuck. I have so many wonderful funny memories of you. Until we meet again.

Alan always loved coming for Christmas Eve and eating my meringue cookies. (I loved him eating them!💙) Rest In Peace and tell my Sissy I said "Hi". Until we all meet again....
