Dear Brian, Delynn and David -- Your mom has been on my mind over the years, and I was so sorry to find her obituary. I'm heartbroken for all of you. I adored your mom -- she was incredibly warm, loving, devoted, and with a wonderful sense of humor. She was such fun to be with, and those Japanese steakhouse dinners were especially memorable! I may even still have a glass or two ;) She was always so good to me. Living outside of Boston brings back memories of my first time to the area to visit Brian, and hearing about her love for antique salt-box houses. Each time I see one, I think of her. The beauty of New England makes me feel like she is always with me with that big smile and wonderful laugh! Much love to all of you.

I'm so sorry for Gwen's passing. I worked with her at Fort Dix and considered her a good friend and great co-worker. She hooked up with my family on a few trips to Vermont. What a joy. I can still taste her pies. Randy Caruso Freehold, NJ.
