Cousins. I was there with you via the internet. The service was very beautiful. Cindy, that was a wonderful testimonial of your mother. I especially enjoyed hearing the song always as my mother also loved that song. God bless all of you and bring comfort in the days ahead. Your cousin. Dorothy

Ms. Grace, The day I met you I wasn't sure that we were going to hit it off. I had decided long ago that I was never going to clean for anyone that was pickier than I was. You ran a tight ship and you took great pride in your beautiful tile walls and floor and wanted them cleaned a certain way. You never complained about the job I did and you were always grateful. I am so thankful for our friendship the past 5 years. You and I had alot of great times together, shopping, talking about our families, eating hoagie from Wawa and laughing together. You loved your family and you always looked forward to their visits and loved to tell me about the latest new addition. I am gonna miss you Ms. Grace..... ~Crystal
