I was so saddened to hear of Kathy's death. My deepest sympathies to the family. I worked with Kathy for several years at the US Attorney's Office. She was a wonderful attorney who was fully dedicated to doing her best and the best for the community. She cared deeply for her family, her dogs and her garden. She had a kind heart but knew when to be tough. She will be greatly missed. May her memory be a blessing. Peggy Ellen

I am sorry for your loss Debbie, Patty & Charlie! I am grateful to have had the opportunity to have met Kathy & the rest of the family at the family reunion a few years ago & really liked her personality & humor & corresponding with her by phone & text a few times. Had certainly hoped for more opportunities to get together. My thoughts & prayers are with you all. Sending love, Krys Dickson
