Marjorie “Marge” A. Weiss, age 85 of Lewes, DE, passed away on March 18, 2022, at Season’s Hospice in Wilmington, after a lengthy battle with Parkinson’s Disease. She was born on October 14, 1936, in Lewistown, PA, daughter of the late Charles R. Martz and Marjorie May (Schmidt) Scatasti.

Marge rose through the ranks of the financial services business, retiring in 1997 as the Vice President of First Federal Savings and Loan, a career that gave her a great amount of satisfaction and pleasure. She was a gifted woman who had many talents and passions, including painting with watercolor and acrylics, sewing, entertaining family and friends with her tremendous culinary skills, bowling, bird watching, gardening, camping, reading autobiographical novels, and home decorating - she even designed the floorplan of her last home. She was an active member of her community as a member of the Cape Artists Gallery, the Rehoboth Art League, the Ocean City Art League, President of the Delaware Association of Bank Security, and Treasurer of the Nassau Station Community Association. I really enjoyed seeing the service for this wonderful woman. Mary's remembrance was a fitting tribute and the minister's scripture was very appropriate. I'm sorry I couldn't be there in person, but my thoughts and prayers are with Jim and his family. Tim Yeakle
