Bob gave me a job working for his company when I was unemployed and needed to work. He provided me with plenty of work all year long and always made sure I was paid. He was a decent boss and always loved talking about his boat and fishing. He loved and cared about his family and he will be missed by many. Rest in peace Bob, throw out a line and enjoy some good fishing up there.

We are so sorry to hear of Robert's passing. Rick and I met Bob and Ann Marie in San Francisco while touring the US back in 2013. We were camping at a KOA in Petaluma and took the same San Francisco tour. We planned to go to Sonoma Valley together, the next day, and Bob graciously offered to be our designated driver. We will cherish those memories forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. Rick and Nathalie Ontario, Canada
