I was an aid at the high school where Jess was a student. I left to start family, but as soon as I saw her smile again, I remembered out chats in the hallway. Jess was an absolute beacon of light back then and I cannot imagine the love she shared since. Never doubt the legacy she has left. XOXO

I remember meeting Jess for the first time in Ocean City Maryland on a family vacation. I was 21 and we played too many games of Rummy 500. We laughed so much that vacation and in the 20+years that followed. She's a Rainbow is a song that always reminded me of her: spunky, sassy, funny, fun, caring, sensitive, empathetic and sympathetic. Jess truly had it all. She was unapologetically herself and so genuine. Having her as a sister in law and a friend was a treasure. I will forever be grateful to have had her love and support over the years. She was an AMAZING Aunt, sister and friend.
