I am sorry for this loss to the family. It is heartwarming, however, how the family members were able to be together with him during the last few months.

I remember a nice Man worked hard, loved his family, sought the Lord and dared to question things that were not right. Prayers for his wonderful children. In heaven now, standing in the presence of Light.

Jim, I miss seeing you walk through that Exit Realty door every morning with that cup of coffee and newspaper in hand. I miss you asking what's for lunch every day. I could talk to you about anything. I'll never forget you buddy.
