Joseph H. Kramer

MAR 6, 1947 - APR 16, 2023

Joseph Howard Kramer (Joe/Jodee) passed away at his home in Rehoboth Beach Delaware on April 16, 2023. He was born in Eldora, Iowa, March 6, 1947, to Joseph Harold Megan Kramer and Ann Calfee Kramer.

Following high school graduation in Eldora, he attended the University of Notre Dame, earning a BA degree, L'Universite Catholique de l'Ouest in Angers, France, and The Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies in Bologna, Italy, and Washington, D.C., where he received a master's degree in international economics and certificate of proficiency in the French language.

His professional career included serving as an international economist and lobbyist at the Washington, DC law and lobbying firm of Patton, Boggs and Blow, a public relations executive in New York City and vice president of the Washington, D.C., lobbying/public relations firms Gray and Company and Hill & Knowlton.

With a summer home in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, he moved there permanently in 1991 with his partner, Mark Brown. Together they opened and operated a bed and breakfast, the "Silver Lake Guesthouse" from 1991 until 2016.

Throughout his life he traveled extensively internationally, including an adventurous 1968 drive in his yellow Mustang convertible through Russia to Odessa, Ukraine. In recent years he especially enjoyed annual visits to Paris.

In addition to his parents, Joseph was preceded in death by his sister JoAnn Kramer, grandparents Joseph Henry and Nellie Megan Kramer and Howard and Carrie Wetrich Calfee. Survivors include his partner of 45 years, Mark Brown, an uncle, William Kramer, and several cousins.

At his request, services will be private.

I will miss Jodee so much - we didn't keep in touch as much as I would have liked, but I thought of him often. In high school we were close friends and I'll always cherish the good times we had. My condolences to Mark, his wonderful partner.
