Linda Marie Ercolino

FEB 1, 1961 - APR 24, 2023

Linda Marie Ercolino, age 62 of Millsboro, DE, passed away on April 24, 2023, at her home. She was born on February 1, 1961, in Islip, NY, daughter of the late Arthur and Dolores Ercolino.

Linda graduated from West Babylon Senior High School, Class of 1979 and went on to work in New York for many years before moving to Maryland and eventually Delaware, where she managed and operated a family business.

Linda was an amazing person who would truly do anything to make others happy. That included her cooking! Linda loved to cook for people; she felt that was a way to make them happy, and she was right. Linda loved her New York Giants, her precious dog Bella, listening to music, the beach, and most of all, her family. Linda constantly doted on her niece Andrea and grandchildren, always expressing her love for them, giving each their own nickname, and showing how much joy they brought her. She took pride being from a strong Italian family and that her roots were in New York. Linda would give anyone the shirt off her back, a helping hand whenever needed and above all, she would do anything to bring joy to others. Linda could talk about anything with anyone, make anyone smile, and she loved unconditionally. She was small but mighty, a firecracker at times, and full of personality. Linda will be remembered for her hilarious stories, her heart of gold, and the love for those she cared about.

Linda is survived by her brothers: Vincent and Arthur Ercolino; her sister-in-law, Deanna Ercolino; her niece, Andrea Ercolino; her aunts, Karen DeLucia and Rosemary Boglino; as well as her extended family: Lynn Stricker; daughters Nicole and Shannon; grandchildren: Braeden, Ellyana, Madilyn, and Waylon; and the love of her life, her dog, Bella.

Linda will be interred at St Charles Cemetery, in Farmingdale, New York with her mother and father. The date of the service will be scheduled for the Summer of 2023, with the date to be determined.

Linda sure was a kind and loving person. She was there for me in my time of sorrow when my sister passed. She cooked a huge meal for my family even doing it on her rare days off. I was deeply saddened to hear about her passing. My prayers and condolences to her entire family. I would most certainly want to attend the service for her in Delaware

I was so lucky to meet the Ercolino's. Linda was such a nice person and would always stop and say hi. We shared stories about our dogs. I will miss seeing her and talking with her. She was little but had a big heart. RIP Linda...

There's something about losing a sister that's inexpressible and permanent. It's like a wound that'll never heal. Linda was the completion of my childhood. She was my BIG (tiny) sister, with the tremendous heart, always there to offer her unconditional love. Linda could also be fiercer than the wind, especially when it came to protecting the people she loved. I've had to except the sudden death of Linda, especially when I didn't get to say goodbye. It was so shocking at the prime of life and most, especially when it seemed like an irreplaceable part of my family is gone. When I finished college, Linda treated me to a trip to Bermuda. We rented mopeds and laughed about constantly finding ourselves on the wrong side of the road, we spent many hours sitting at the edge of the water with our feet in the sand, laughing about nothing. I later treated her to a cruise to the Bahamas, which was another wonderful memory of laughing and well spent one on one bonding time. There were some troubling times in Linda's life as well but with constant support and unconditional love, she would remain on a good path. If I had to choose a few words to honor her legacy, it would be a tribute of hers, which was her generous spirit, that everyone will remember. She always listened with a deeper understanding than others and would never turn down helping if asked. A little bit of her will always live in me. I will miss her fiercely. Her loving brother Vinnie
