Frank Scibilia

AUG 27, 1943 - AUG 6, 2023

Frank Scibilia, age 79 of Lewes, DE passed away at home on Sunday, August 6, 2023. He was born on August 27, 1943 in Chester, PA, son of the late Joseph Scibilia and Edith (Borsello) McDade.

Mr. Scibilia was a proud veteran, having honorably served in the US Air Force. Faith was a pillar in his life, and he was an active member of St. Jude the Apostle Church in Lewes, DE. In his spare time, he loved playing golf, an activity that brought him great joy. What he treasured most was time spent with his friends and family, especially his grandchildren. Mr. Scibilia was a loving and nurturing husband, father, grandfather, and friend and his presence will be dearly missed by all who were fortunate enough to know him.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his sister, Debbie, and his brother Joe. Mr. Scibilia is survived by his children: Steven Scibilia (Susan) of Newark, DE, and Christine Frazier (Quinn) of Frankford, DE; and his grandchildren: Michael, Jacob, Grace, and Luke Hopkins.

Our senscere condolences to Frankie's family. My husband and I have many warm memories from his Peninsula days. Quick with a smile, song or story that was our Frankie! We consider ourselves fortunate to have known him. He took this picture of us two years ago and then had it framed and presented it to us. It sits on a table where I see it every day. Our fond renberance of him. RIP our friend. Joan Renner and John Stikeman.

It always amazes me when certain individuals pass through my life. Frankie's job as one of the summer golf course marshals, at the Peninsula, is how my husband and I met him. He always reminded me of the character Edward Bloom in the movie, "The Big Fish", a favorite of mine. Frankie was a great storyteller, a crooner, "Oh Those Wildwood Days", and obvious to us a family man. We missed him when the season opened this year. We were saddened to learn of his illness. We extend our deepest sympathies to his wife and family. We are grateful to have met the man. Teresa & Michael Logue
