Sincerest condolences for your loss Betty Jean. I remember long ago as kids in art class, you would tell me proudly about your dad and how he would be outside the house with you and Joe, working on projects and having fun. Your mom, supportive and always close by. I can picture in my mind's eye, driving past your home and my dad mentioning every time that your father is "the man from Sears". Dear friend, your dad passed knowing your love never wavered, as a little girl and until his last breath. Your time with him was a gift from God. May his memory be a blessing.
