I knew Pat for 18 years. We lived on the same block and would get together once or twice a week. Her irreverent sense of humor was always great. I also loved her husband Mo. I grieve for both of them, and love them dearly. Mary Forristal

I know Pat from our exercise class at the senior center. Her very irreverent comedic outbursts during our workouts were hysterical! She will surely be missed and not forgotten. Our class will not be the same without Pat. Sending my sincere, heartfelt condolences to her husband, Mauro, her children, grand children, extended family & friends. May God's peace and compassion help you during this very difficult time. Sue Kraiza
