I don't believe that Marylou and I had encountered each other in more than forty years! Yet, I have several very fond memories of her and her lovely family from back in the early 1970s at the Seaford Swimming Pool. They all were very open and supportive of a new young kid who arrived in town to coach the swim team. All three of the children were fine swimmers, and Marylou was very helpful to me getting settled in a new area; she hosted me for multiple meals and helped me find all sorts of basic household items as I set up my bachelor pad in Bethel. It's both amazing and sad that -- in our little rural community -- our paths did not cross in recent years. Nonetheless, my heart and best wishes go out to Kathi and Jody; your Mom was a good lady!

What a delightful lady and backyard neighbor Ms Kinsey was! We've missed chatting with her for quite some time. May Jody & Kathi know how much we enjoyed her, and may she dwell among God's angels now. 📍 Lynne & Mike Betts
