Captain Ronald C. Pickup Ret.

OCT 7, 1936 - JAN 1, 2024

Captain Ronald C. Pickup, U. S. Coast Guard (Ret.) was born in Providence, Rhode Island on October 7, 1936, to Chester and Agnes (Josephson) Pickup. He graduated from Robert E. Fitch High School, Groton, Connecticut in June 1954. He was attending Mitchell Junior College in New London, Connecticut when he won an appointment to the Coast Guard Academy in New London. He graduated in June 1960 and was awarded a bachelor's degree in engineering and was commissioned ENSIGN, U. S. Coast Guard.

In 1960, Ronald was married to the former Ann (Garland) Pickup, and had three children, Lisa, Scott, and Karen.

His first assignment after graduation was on board the Cutter Barataria, homeported in Portland, Maine. Followed by tours of duty at the Coast Guard LORAN Station in Pusan, Korea, the Marine Inspection Office in Los Angeles/Long Beach California, and back to sea aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Winnebago in Honolulu, Hawaii. The vessel was deployed to the far East and served ten months in the Viet Nam conflict.

From 1969 to 1973 he was assigned to the Marine Safety Office, Cleveland, Ohio, the last two years in the capacity as Executive Officer. From 1973 to 1977 he was assigned to the Merchant Vessel Inspection Division, Office of Marine Safety in Washington, DC. He returned to Cleveland and served one year as the Chief of the Environmental Protection Branch, Marine Safety Division, in the Office of the Commander Ninth Coast Guard District. In 1978 to 1981, he was assigned to the Marine Safety Office, Cleveland, Ohio as Commanding Officer.

He returned to Washington, DC during the summer of 1981 and was assigned to the Office of Merchant Marine Safety and appointed Chief of the Traveling Inspection Staff in May of 1984. He held that position until reporting to Baltimore, MD Marine Safety Office as Commanding Officer in 1985. He retired from the Coast Guard in 1987 and began a new career in Real Estate for 20
