Pauline Cottingham

APR 17, 1926 - FEB 12, 2024

On Monday, February 12, 2024, Pauline Cottingham passed on from this life to her next.

Pauline was born in Greenbackville, Virginia April 17, 1926, to Emma and Seymore Lang, where she grew up with her siblings Hilton, W. Carlton, Mary, and Rachel on their family farm. She attended Greenbackville and Franklin Elementary Schools in Virginia, eventually graduating from Snow Hill High School in Maryland. Pauline went to Goldey-Beacom College, Wilmington, DE, where she received her AA degree. After College, she returned to Snow Hill, MD, and started working as a teller and eventually head teller at the Maryland National Bank. While working there, she met and befriended Wilson Cottingham, who would introduce his son, a returning veteran from WW 2, and the eventual love of her life, William "Fowler" Cottingham, to Pauline. After dating, they married and bought a home in Snow Hill. Shortly after, she gave birth to two screaming rugrats, Gary and Carl Cottingham, five years apart, starting in 1953. In 1962, the family moved to Rehoboth Beach, DE, where she lived the rest of her life. After the loss of Fowler, she devoted her life to taking care of her older siblings and to the family church, Westminster Presbyterian. She served as a session member, an elder, a deacon, in the Women's Circle, and part of the Presbytery. For more than 30 years she planned church luncheons and scheduled and arranged all the flowers for the church. She was also involved in the Sussex Garden Club, where she could indulge her lifelong love of flowers and plants. There was never a more caring and supportive Wife, Mother, or Grandmother than Pauline.

She is preceded in death by her husband, William "Fowler" Cottingham, and her siblings, Hilton Lang, W. Carlton Lang, Mary Timmons, and Rachel Chapman. She is survived by her sons Gary F. Cottingham and his wife Kathy, and Carl L. Cottingham and his wife Joanne; her grandchildren Gary Cottingham Jr. and his wife Angie, John Pauline was a great lady! She was a mom to all in Schoolvue and the Norfolk street areas of Rehoboth. She had an eye for antique glass (milk glass) (amethyst) etc... but what I most remember was her driving Mary Louise Mack and others well into her golden years!!

Dear Pauline, we use to have our discussions. about how things should be done in deacon's meetings and our Ladies circle. You taught me so much., mainly "not to argue with Pauline", you were aays right.. I can still hear your voice in my memory. Now go tell them in in heaven how to do things right. You are loved. Amy J. Reed Parker lit a candle in honor of Pauline.

Pauline was a constant in church & our neighborhood, like so many of our dear mothers! She was kind, sweet, & I always loved her distinct voice. I can remember her walking Carl to the corner on his way to school when we were kids. She forever had a twinkle in her eye & grin all her own. And like many of our mothers that were widowed or divorced at a young age in a different time she/they exhibited a strength & fortitude to be admired. RIP Pauline, we trust Fowler & your departed loved ones await you.
