Maria was born on May 14, 1950, in Eglouvi, Lefkada ,Greece. She came to the United States in 1970 when she married Vassilios Kolyvas also from Lefkada. She worked several jobs and ultimately was a Seamstress as her last career. Vassilios and Maria raised their children Vasilike and Christopher in Adelphi, MD and attended Sts. Constantine and Helen of DC. Later they retired to Milton, DE where they became active members of St. Andrew the Apostle Orthodox Church in Lewes, DE.

Maria was known for her loving and giving nature. She wanted everyone to feel comfortable in her home and was the epitome of filoxenia. She had an infectious laugh and took pride in passing on many Greek traditions to her granddaughter who she talked to every day. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, sewing, and reading. She was a devout Orthodox Christian and was immersed in the Church community at St. Andrew.
