It is hard to believe Charles has gone to heaven too soon. Although I only knew him through my job I felt like a friend to him. Always a slight smile and a kitty story. I enjoyed sharing my kitty stories and pics with him. Thanks Charles and your caring wife for being a friend. Jamie from Giant

Lynn & family, thanking God for the gift of Charles' Life ---- one, well lived and I treasured his kindness and caring way of treating all people. Charles had a beautiful voice which was used to Lector at St. Edmond Catholic Church and he participated in our weekly Rosary always willing to say a decade. I appreciate that he was a part of my life with my husband, Bill. Now Charles & Bill -- in peace with our Lord for Eternity. God Bless You and with love, Barbara Riggs

Lynn: I am so sorry to hear of Charles' passing. Before he became ill, I would chat with Charles at daily Mass at St. Edmond. He was always very pleasant. Later, I took over scheduling the Brandywine Ministers of the Rosary and Communion Service from you and Charles. I thank you both for serving in and scheduling that Ministry. I extend my condolences. You and Charles are in my thoughts and prayers. Bob Wolhar.
