Dorothy E. Burke

JUN 21, 1936 - SEP 28, 2024

Dorothy E. (Schwear) Burke, born on June 21, 1936, in Wernersville, PA, peacefully passed away on September 28, 2024, in Milford, DE, at the age of 88. She was the beloved daughter of the late Sallie (Schwear) Evans.

Dorothy was a woman of many talents and interests. She had a deep love for sewing and crocheting, often creating beautiful pieces with her hands. She enjoyed the simple pleasures of life, such as playing bingo, going fishing, and camping. Her warmth and sense of adventure brought joy to those around her.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her mother, Sallie, her devoted husband, Clarence Burke, and her son, Steve Burke, Sr. She is survived by her loving daughter, Sandra Agee; her cherished grandchildren, Vicki, Eric, Shane, Steve Jr., and Shaun; and her adored great-grandchildren, Desiree and Alyssa.

Services will be private, as the family honors Dorothy's memory in their own special way. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

We met Dot at Grace United Methodist Church in Georgetown. She told us how to get hummingbirds to come to our feeders. She loved hummingbirds. She was a sweet and kind person who loved to come to church for fellowship and worship services. She is now in paradise with Jesus. Glad we got the chance to know her. Sympathy to her family.
