Carolyn sat next to me in the Soprano section of Epworth's Chancel Choir for 5-6 years. It was wonderful to have someone who could hit the high notes so professionally. She sang many solo's - and her favorite was 'The Lord's Prayer' which she did so well. Carolyn was a friend and real Lady. As they noted at the service, she could be stubborn, was always gentle and gracious. She will be missed, but thankful after going through 4+ years of pain and mental decline, she is finally at peace and with her parents, Tee and her beloved Son. It was a pleasure to know you Carolyn, from another Carolyn (Cattafi).

My dear cousin, Carolyn... So many memories of fun adventures we had. Especially our cross country trip. Florida, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Route 66 from Chicago to Phoenix! And I loved attending your shows in Phoenix and Delaware. My favorites were you in Little Mary Sunshine and as Mother Superior in Sound of Music. And of course, your recording of Oh Holy Night which I listen to every Christmas season. Rest in peace. I will miss you! Love, Margaret
