JR. my good friend, He will be missed by me and my family. We had a lot in common we spoke almost every day, he had his ways but don't we all. One of his favorite memories was when he and his brothers were young and they would go out in a small rowboat in the wicomico river and dive down to get oysters...eat them on the boat and I believe that's his favorite time. No responsibility, just laughing and carrying on. He spoke of it often.
