William Michael DeCorrevont

DEC 25, 1949 - JUN 5, 2025

William M. DeCorrevont, known for his warmth, strength, and deep love for family, passed away peacefully on June 5, 2025, at Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. Born on Christmas Day, 1949, in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, Bill lived a full and meaningful life centered around service, family, and joy.

He graduated from Central Bucks High School and attended Bucks County Community College, excelling in both academics and athletics. Bill served proudly in the Vietnam War aboard the USS Intrepid and later built a successful career as Regional Sales Manager for A.O. Smith.

More than any professional success, Bill found his greatest joy in his marriage to his beloved wife of 35 years, Deborah (Haas), and in being a devoted father to Lanae Herman (Todd). He was a proud and loving grandfather to Cole and Jake Herman. Bill is also survived by his sister, Theresa Mey (Karl), brother, Michael DeCorrevont (Shannon), niece, Cameron and nephew, Kyle. In addition, he will be greatly missed by many close friends considered family.

He was predeceased by his parents, William P. and Jacqueline DeCorrevont, who instilled in him strong values and kindness. Bill had a passion for travel, photography, home projects, and his rescue dogs. He found peace in gardening, dinners with friends and family, and the beach that became his final resting place.

Even while facing serious illness, Bill remained full of grace, humor, and love. His legacy lives on in the hearts of everyone who knew him.

A private burial will take place at the Washington Crossing National Cemetery.

I was saddened to hear about Bill's passing. Though I only met Bill and Deborah a few times (once hiking in one of our beautiful DE state parks), I sensed a wonderfully warm and loving bond between them. I'd like to share the poem below. It was sent to me when I lost someone close many years ago. I hope it provides some comfort to you as well. A Parable of Immortality by Henry Van Dyke "I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and the sky come down to mingle with each other. Then someone at my side says, 'There she goes!'" "Gone where? Gone from my sight...that is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says, 'There she goes!' there are other eyes watching her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, 'Here she comes!'"

Great memories of our time in Rehoboth going to dinner at Irish Eyes, walks on the beach, breakfast at Robin Hood, and Happy Hour with our gin & tonics (Bill would have his wine) Bill had such a quiet sense of humor. He didn't say much but when he did, it was always funny! He will truly be missed. ❤️
