Sue I miss you so bad, I look out the kitchen window, your car is in the driveway. The garage door has not opened. You were such a wonderful friend to me and we did a lot of fun things together. Book club will not be the same with you not there, the attendance will drop. I know you are in heaven with your mom now. I love you, please save a seat next to you for me. Leah, Mike and Gizmo

To a sweet, caring and generous friend, from that 1st meeting as new college freshman and roommates, to a few days before an angel tapped you on your shoulder to call you home, you were always thinking of others. Rest in Peace, Sue You are missed! Pat

Sue was the best "big" sister. We hung out throughout childhood with our neighborhood friends and once she married and had her family, we were together for most holidays. I enjoyed our times together when she visited us in AZ and CA in recent years. I will miss her so much and know that she is at peace in heaven with Mom and Dad.
