James Arthur Higdon Jr.

JAN 26, 1953 - OCT 25, 2025

James Arthur Higdon, Jr., age 72, of Seaford, Delaware, passed away on Saturday, October 25, 2025, at Lofland Park Center in Seaford, after a short illness.

Born on January 26, 1953, in Wilmington, Delaware, Jim, or Buddy, as his parents and siblings fondly called him, was the son of the late James Arthur Higdon, Sr., and Lois Sarah (Harris) Higdon.

Jim was a lifelong entrepreneur who worked for many years as a contractor in Dover, Delaware. From 1995 to 2010, until his retirement, he proudly served as the Sheriff of Kent County.

Jim faced many challenges in his last years and was appreciative of his family's efforts of support, and likewise, his family appreciates Jim's good friends for their love and support of him.

Jim is survived by his son, John Higdon; stepson, Todd Wyatt; stepdaughter, Michele Wyatt; granddaughter, Alexis Ballard; sister, Brenda Bennett (John); brother, Doug Higdon (Yong); and stepbrother, David Lowery.

The family will hold a private remembrance.

Lisle Sandra posted:

I can still hear Jim quoting the famous Sherlock Holmes ... when it comes down to logic, and deduction, "When you have eliminated the impossible, whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth" and "You see, but you do not observe," highlighting his method.

Jim loved his cars! Buying, selling, and trading. Wish I had a picture of his smart car! Man that things was fun and so many memories were made buzzing around town in that little thing!

I'll never forget when he flew out to California for my college graduation. It meant a lot that he would travel such a long distance to celebrate with us. I pray for a peaceful transition into your beautiful next life, Uncle Jim.
