The Windstone Ladies use to go walking on Rehoboth Beach in the early mornings one or two days a week. We would see the beautiful sunrises and inhale that wonderful ocean air. Parking was free before 7 AM so we were early birds!After our energenic walk we would go to Breakfast

So many good memories of good times together - from our high school years to our 70s. Michelle's smile and wonderful disposition will always be with me. We started having fun together at the beach back in 1970 and happily our last years together (since 2014) were also beach-centered.
