Jacqueline C. Corrigan

DEC 8, 1930 - JAN 15, 2026

“Jackie” died peacefully at her residence at The Moorings in Lewes, DE. (Formerly of Bay Colony Dagsboro, DE) on January 15, 2026.

Jackie was born on December 8, 1930, in Wilmington, DE to the late Agnes O’Brien and Lawrence Conlin. She was also pre-deceased by her daughter, Terry Marshall (Donald), her sister, Dorothea Frugoli, her brothers, Dr. Lawrence Conlin and Richard Conlin.

Jackie is survived by her husband of 75 years, John J. Corrigan; sons, John Jr. (Cida), Laurence, and Jeffrey Corrigan (Audrey). Also surviving are grandchildren, Erik, Ellie, Lauren and Jack Corrigan.

Services will be private.

Jackie’s family wished to express their sincere appreciation for the professional care and love she experienced while a resident at The Moorings.

In lieu of flowers, Jackie’s wish was a contribution to a charity of your choosing.

Jackie was one of my Aunt's (Audrey Schaeffer) Best Friends. I also knew Jackie from Cripple Creek Golf & Country Club. She was always happy and laughing, joking. She was so nice and always wanted to talk to me about my Aunt and their long friendship. Jackie was also very fond of my daughter, Joell Dougherty, who was one of the pool lifeguards. Little Jack had a crush on Joell and Jackie always said that Jack will marry her one day. Lol So sad to see her passing. What a Great Lady! I suppose "The Golden Girls" are all together now in Heaven. Cheers to you, Girls!!Patti WardDagsboro, DE

Miss Jackie was my mother-in-law. She welcomed me into her family with open arms. I also loved the way she didn't beat around the bush if she had something on her mind, she expressed it. You never had to wonder what she was thinking.
