Bob, Amy, Jill and I have so many happy memories of our lovely neighbor and kind friend, Barbara. “ Barbara lived a life of love and devotion to her family and friends. She could be counted on to be strong, funny, generous, caring and interested. I'm grateful to have had time in her company as she enjoyed time with her much-loved daughter and granddaughters. Roberta Pilk MacDonald, Jack's oldest sister

“ I remember one time visiting Aunt Barbara with my family, including our two young children. My daughter Miranda was an aspiring young artist, and I remember how Aunt Barbara immediately bonded with her over visual art, showing her her studio and supplies. Our daughter was enthralled.

She also never, ever, forgot a birthday or other celebration. The cards always came, always thoughtfully chosen, always with a short sweet message inside.

Thank you, Aunt Barbara, for the love you shone into our lives.
