“ Suzanne Heritage-Madanat lit a candle in memory of Diana Jeanne Schoenbeck

“ Sending love, comfort and strength with heartfelt sympathy at this difficult time to the Schoenbeck family. May your memories of the wonderful times you shared with Diana comfort you and your family, today and always.

I am a neighbor across the street from Diana and we chatted over the phone and went to movies together. She had a contagious laugh when we watched a comedy movie together and I couldn't help but to join her. She was so much fun to be with. I wish I had moved in to our neighborhood earlier to have more time with her.

“ To the Schoenbeck family- We are sorry to hear about the loss of Ms. Diana. When we went on walks, she and my mom (Della) would talk for what would seem like hours. She spoiled our fur baby Piper with many treats. We walked past the house the other day, and our walks are not the same. Piper stopped hoping to see Ms. Diana coming from her house, or driving up in her car. May God provide you with the comfort you may need, and may your memories of her hold you. “

Diana,

May you rest with a kind of peace and calmness that you may never have had here. May your heart and soul rest from the weary journey and stresses of life. Be at peace with the Lord and lay your burdens down.

To the ones that made the decision to exclude my Husband and Diana's only given Son from her services today. I pray that you will know and feel in your heart and soul the pain and frustration that you have caused today and till the end of your days. Your choices today will be felt judged by a Higher Power on your judgement day and may your soul never Rest In Peace for what you have done. HEARTLESS and PETTY.

Tony. I am Sadden to learn of your Moms Passing..You were her World. As we grow older our Lives change on Thoughts in Life. Never in Love! Ups & Downs occur, Secrets are kept but in Life a Mother & her Child the Love will always be there. Watching todays service for your mom, was gut wrenching you not being there. As a Mother we are there bringing our children into this world knowing when we leave this world our children will be there. My Heart was Broken today for you! Why I ask!!! Ignorance, Secrets, Betrayal most likely , Those in attendance might ask them selves what Would Diane have Wanted! ...I know a Mothers Heart see I am a Mother...Instead I feel it wasent what Diane wanted it was those who could not Face the Deception that she endured over her Life.

Diane passed Alone so the Hurt you feel would not linger. Know one thing Tony, in the End she Loved you more than anyone or anything on this Earth. Those whom think differently will know when their judgement day comes. They can manipulate one in Life but once above the control & Secrets will be Heard. I Love You my Nephew forever & I will always remain at your side. I'm just so sorry you will never have that closure with your Mom due to someone else's ignorance & disrespect... Rest in Peace Diane I will be here for your son as always!

“ Tom, thank you for a lovely service for our beloved Diana. To you Diana...may you continue to dance, sing and laugh in your new home in heaven. I woke today singing with you and Ellie, one of our favorite songs, “Make your own kind of music”.

Diana was a remarkable women, and exceptional child and family advocate. Her work under Governor Minner, on behalf of families and children, will be her legacy. She loved family and we had so many wonderful adventures and memories together in Delaware and South Carolina. I loved our vacation days together with “Dinanie” at her beloved Rehoboth Beach and her favorite pizza place on the boardwalk, drives through the Amish countryside, and antique shopping. She loved our times together in SC strawberry picking, cook-outs on our back porch and times together visiting the sites in Greenville. Most of all, we loved our long talks into the night, sitting out under the stars, sharing our life experiences, laughter, and issues of the day. I will miss her, my beloved sister, and our many “adventures” together...always.

“ Literally heartbroken to hear of the passing of my dear Red Hat friend, Diana. Even though we have not seen each other recently we kept in contact with late night phone calls when she felt up to it and before the pandemic she loved to come to Rehoboth. We would have a late breakfast at Cracker Barrel and then would go to either AndThat or HomeGoods, stores she loved. I will miss her. Love, Nancy

Nancy Boyle - February 09 at 08:38 PM

“ It is with great sadness Diana that we say goodbye. Our Red Hat group, The Steel Magnolias, have had the best of times together. You were so full of life and loved having fun. Every year you opened your home home and pool to an August evening of swimming and dinner. What memories we have those evenings!!! Just being together every month or gathering for a road trip always turned into an adventure. Sending prayers for Tom, your son and your whole family as they walk a new path in their life without you.

As Queen Mum of the Steel Magnolias, we all are going to miss your presence, your wit, your love of life and the strong friendships we shared. Rest In Peace dear friend.

I know how difficult it is to lose a sibling. A loss that is not expressed by any other words except a void in your heart.

Tony and I send our love. Please let us know if you need anything.

“ I met her once when Tom came to visit me. lovely woman, she delivered a rim shot snide remark to her husband that I would have been proud to have been responsible for. I turned to her and said "Ok, you passed the test, I officially like you." charming woman. my condolences.

“ Though we never met, I can tell by the way that you impacted Uncle Tom that you were an extraordinary person. I've sorry that I never got the chance to know you as it is truly my loss. Rest in peace, Aunt Diana.

Sean Quinn - February 08 at 08:32 PM

“ I shall always cherish our life together. You always supported me, gave me good council, guided my path, lit the way for me. Your wonderful sense of humor and laughter is part of what made your presence an constant delight. We built a 42 year life together from the ground up, from nothing. It was through your inspiration and generosity that the font of success sprung into our life. Your are and will always be the bedrock of my existence. The Ancients believe a person’s soul and spirit is alive as long as there is still another to breathe their name. I shall always breathe your name even if in the dark and late still of the night. Your life and your giving will remain with me all the days of my life- Diana Jeanne Schoenbeck. Until we meet again and with unconditional love, Thomas
