“ We were so sad to hear of Miss Donna's death. She was such a part of our families life back when our daughter, Shannon, danced for her. The fun and laughter we had is so unforgettable. I could go on and on with memories, at least we have them! Farewell Miss. Donna and we will see you again some day.

“ Donna you were an inspiring person in all you did. You shared your life with us and let us know your passion you had for dance. Sadly we will not see you dance again but we will know you are dancing in heaven every time the sun sparkles through the clouds. You were a fine lady. Sincere condolences to all your family and friends, Gail Schultz

“ Donna was a dear and loving friend. I met Donna in my church Safe Harbor UCC. She had a passion for dance. She and her husband even gave lessons to our members. She was a pistol and not afraid to let anyone know it. She was always worried about others. She always dressed to the 9's and had her own fashion. Until we meet again in heaven Donna rest in peace.

Love always Kathy Carpenter Brown
