“ Eileen was a beloved wife to me Carol Ann Grey for many blessed years. She had a jest for life and loved to travel to Alaska, Vegas, Europe, Hawaii and many parts of the US. She made friends where ever she went. She had a great love and kindness for her family and friends. Her generosity to all was well known. She loved her country and her church. She lived a full life and impressed her doctors with her stoicism to preserve her life with her medical issues. RIP with all your loved ones my angel.

“ I was a classmate of Eileen's. She was always a fun loving person. We shared many laughs together. I will be forever grateful for her being part of the start up of the Lunchfest group. What a brilliant idea! Eileen was always so thoughtful and caring. I will miss her greatly! My thoughts go out to all her family and friends that loved her as much as I do! She will surely be missed by all! Nancy Yeich
