“ I met Frank a few months ago and had the pleasure of talking to him about several things we had in common - he was so interesting. I saw him again a few more times just to say hi...he remembered our conversation. I am blessed to have meticulously him even for such a short time. I will remember our brief meeting always. Frank, may God bless you and rest in peace.

“ While I am sad to hear of Franks passing , I do know he lived his life to the fullest. He was able to travel and he made the best Lemoncello. I always will remember Frank for his sweet disposition, and the ability to grow the biggest best tasting tomatos. The heavens have received another Angel. Rest in Peace and hugs to all who mourn his passing....Mary Elizabeth Mann
