“ Harry was a great man and father. He ran a backhoe at my dads project at Spring Lake.
I sat next to him on that Ford for many a hour.
Good stories. If you know him you get it. He and Ray could banter the best. Sad day.

“ We were neighbors in Marathon for many, many years. Harry & his late wife Darlene were dear friends.
We did not know when we mourned the loss of Darlene that we would lose Harry so quickly.
He was a good man, with many outstanding qualities.
We loved him & will miss him as will so many of our mutual friends in Florida.

“ We're smiling through our tears as we think of all the fun times we shared with Harry in Marathon. He was good at telling jokes, but his self-deprecating humor was unmatched, and we'll never forget many of his stories. We used to ask him to go out to eat with us, but he always declined, saying, "I'm on duty tonight, guarding the neighborhood." He'd pantomime the guard's march, and then salute us as we left. I loved that big smile of his. We salute you, dear friend, and thank you for keeping us safe. May you rest in peace, Harry Miller.
